

Some cool camera
or production shot

Turn-key video production services

We can take your project from creative concept all the way to the final compression, or help you with any of the steps in between.

- Script writing
- Location scouting
- Talent search and auditioning
- Field production
- Editing

Not quite sure how to get started?

Look around our portfolio to find sample projects. If you like what you see, let's chat! Consultations are always free.

Freelance Production Crew

In addition to providing complete production services to our business clients, we also help fellow producers arrange a competent crew in Southern California.

We love lighting and shooting interviews!

Show A/V

Do you have an event in San Diego and need a competent camera op? We'd love to help!

Simone Hogan is a skilled long lens operator, and knows many other techs with decades under their belt.

Short notice? No problem. We know how crazy
